

SUCCESS STORY: MARY'S HOUSEHOLD

MySherri™ believes that the home should be a place where you go to recharge. That's why we employ and deploy an excellent in-home workforce for the busy, ambitious professional and families who need help getting more time back in their lives.

CHALLENGES/PAIN POINTS

When Mary came to MySherri™, she was feeling exhausted at the end of the work day. Her home wasn't feeling like a place she wanted to be, and she generally wanted to get some help to alleviate her stress and time. Some of her challenges included:

- Disorderly house
- Disorganized kitchen and garage
- Undone laundry
- Messy Office

SOLUTIONS & TASK LIST

To help relieve some of this stress, MySherri™ created a weekly task list for Mary's household that included:

- Laundry and folding
- Tidying the house
- Meal prep
- Changing linens

We also completed a special project of cleaning and reorganizing the kitchen storage space to help make the home feel more enjoyable. We found baking soda that expired in 1994!

SUCCESS STORY: RESULTS

At first, Mary was very reluctant to let us into her “safe space” and put a lot of trust in us by taking a leap of faith with our team. Now she says she can’t live without us.

Now, Mary:

- Feels relieved to come home at the end of the long work day
- Knows she will not have this huge list of chores waiting for her
- Doesn’t feel like she has to do it all anymore!

“ You have created something very special with MySherri. I can’t believe I’ve lived so long without this help!
